One of our fave brands, everyone should have Vancouver's Dace on their radar (dace.ca). Carezza dress on for $150.

A crystal-embellished Kruse clip finishes off a breezy getup. Available in loads of colours at Blue Ruby stores and Hills of Kerrisdale, approximately $45.

Make like a movie star in this straw chapeau by Joe Fresh Style, $9 (Joe.ca).

Channel a subtle, sexy tan with Warm Glow natural bronzer by Burberry Beauty ($60, Holt Renfrew).

Meet my No. 1 summer shades. These Claudia Alan unisex aviators ($39) feature artwork by First Nations artist Corinne Hunt, co-designer of the 2010 Olympic Medals. Even cooler? Partial proceeds go to the OneXOne First Nations Nutritious Breakfast Program. Purchase at claudiaalan.com

Glide on the glamour with Burberry Beauty's Lip Glow natural lip gloss (warning: you'll fall in love), available exclusively at Holt Renfrew ($35).

Nothing says summer more than a pair of candy-toned flip flops. Available at Old Navy, $5.

STYLE FILE

Stylism newsflash: It's not too late to up the ante on your warm-weather wardrobe add-ons. In fact, your timing couldn't be better, gorgeous. From floppy hats and cheeky sunnies to woven wedges and sweetie-pie jumpers, sales abound and it feels like forever until fall. And your recipe for looking midsummer sensational? Avoid the fuss. Go easy on the war-paint, lay off the fancy footwear and have a fling with fashion that begs for a picnic in the park. Go for a dusting of bronzer, bien sur (check out the coveted version by the just-debuted Burberry Beauty, above), put hair up in a Malibu-casual bun-bash-pony (love the Vancouver-born Kruse clip), a chic little frock, perhaps a slick of candy pink gloss — et voilà! Endless summer, baby.
